Defendant.)
_____)

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Defendant’s Consent Motion for Reversal and Remand Pursuant to Sentence Four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) [Doc. 14]. The Plaintiff consents to the motion.

Sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) provides, in pertinent part, that “[t]he court shall have power to enter, upon the pleadings and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, with or without remanding the cause for a rehearing.” The Defendant here has moved for reversal of her decision and for remand of this case for further administrative proceedings. For the reasons stated in the Defendant's motion, the Court finds that remand is appropriate. See Melkonyan v. Sullivan, 501 U.S. 89 (1991).

On remand, the Commissioner will further evaluate the severity of the claimant's impairments; further evaluate the medical opinions of record and the claimant's residual functional capacity; further evaluate the claimant's ability to perform other work that exists in significant numbers in the national economy; evaluate the findings of the Medicaid determination of the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services; and if necessary, obtain supplemental vocational expert evidence.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Defendant's Consent Motion for Reversal and Remand Pursuant to Sentence Four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) [Doc. 14] is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security is hereby REVERSED and this case is hereby REMANDED for further administrative proceedings, consistent with this Order.

The Clerk of Court shall enter a separate Judgment of Remand simultaneously herewith, thereby closing the case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge
